

1. Villa @Mahua – the great escape

This modern 4500 sqft beauty was completed by the firm in 2021. It is located at Mahua, a subdistrict of Bhavnagar, having mild weather and green lush surroundings. It is designed while keeping nature in mind. Idea behind this design was to take nature inside through spatial organization and Biophilic elements. Elevation is designed to create an iconic image within the area. Wooden ceiling, steel poles are main elements of the elevation. The carefully thought-out design and details of the entire house have a common underlying design theme, but each space is unique in its style and characteristics.

2. pent house- Water Lily

This modern classic house is designed to have a distinctive character, by bold contrasts and accent colors that give life to each room in the house. Some classic details were added to give character and warmth to this house.

3. Film studio- The Half moon, Filimation

A studio designed with moon light ambience and turquoise tint. Wall paneling designed here describe a set of film stars which have great impact on visitors.

4. Groom's wear studio- The French House

Being a groom's wear studio, it is designed in a modern way with some contemporary touch. Pastel shades are used along with wood. Bold contrasting colors are used for furniture such as chairs.

5. The Gray house- Mr. Smit Shah

Location: Ahmedabad

area- 1500 sqft

the entire house is designed in Gray tone along with whites and browns. With the same color scheme also, each and every space is designed to have a unique character than other.

6. PDP co- working space- The Desk Plan

Client - PDP

Place - Ahmedabad

Area - 3000sqft apprx.

INNOVATION and INCUBATIVE centre at pandit dindayal petroleum university has been designed with a large co-working space which accommodates 50 people. It has sculpted acoustic panels on ceiling in its company universal blue shade as theme. The space is designed with seating variations to ensure comfort for everyone. It has high chair seating, bench seating, private seating, bean bags, formal table chair and more. It has two telephone booths to maintain work decorum. The building will also cover computer labs, meeting rooms and waiting area with coffee kiosks.

7. Party plot- The Urban insert

This building is designed for a party plot, keeping in mind its ethnic style and local material which are available in west Gujarat. The elevation has bold yellow stones with Mangalore tiles and vintage light fittings are chosen to give it a traditional look.

8. Travel office- Viswacation

A travel office designed with a concept of black toned framing partition giving an industrial as well as raw creative look. A world map provided on the wall is the main attraction of the design. Different show pieces on every wall depicts its theme around.

9. Residence at Bhavnagar-

Area: 2300 sqft

This residence is designed with earthy elements. As you enter the first visual clue to the kind of luxury that will follow is the clean, pure white aesthetics peppered with beige neutral tones and occasional bursts of colours on the furniture and walls.

10. Soham Bungalow renovation:

Location: Ahmedabad

Area:

A compact space that got converted into a contemporary living. elements are designed considering the compactness of the space. A foldable dining space is designed in combination of yellow lights, teak wood, and turquoise fabric. An attempt is made to find a midway between traditional and contemporary look with the usage of minimalistic furniture.

11. Office at Bhavanagar- The workstation

Entire office is designed in a creative way. One of corners is designed using profile lights and geometrical pattern inlay which adds more beauty to the workstation. These details create design itself.

12. office of Gautam ship breaking – redefining envelope

Location: Bhavnagar

Corporate office building designed amidst of mid-century streetscape is the attraction point due to its contrasting high gloss and unique elevation. The crux of this space was to design a work environment that reflected the ethos of the company

Bright shades are used here which infuses the space with energy. Battens are provided for a soothing view for the formal spaces.

13. Horizon multi-specialty hospital-

Location: Bhavnagar

Area: 2500 sqft

Hospital is designed while keeping its function in mind. General wards for both men and women are done separately using olive green shade walls with ink art done on it to ensure calm n peaceful environment.

Gynae labour room has been designed with a concept of nature inspired ceiling using artificial lightings and 3d art work that keeps one attracted towards it. To ensure speedy healing of the patient vibrant shades and biophilic elements are used such as creeper in ceiling design.

14. Shree Ram dental clinic

Location: Ahmedabad

Area: 900 sqft

Everything is focused on the individual customer experience. Reception desk at the front part and a lounge area with sofas and a backlit wall is provided to enhance the aesthetics. Wooden flooring and Gray furniture with wooden elements is the most dominating part of the clinic design.

15. Pent House Aavali residence- A dream house

A 3000sqft pent house has a living space that has a visual connection to dining area and kitchen with a movable swing. Tv unit gives a bold impression due to exposed concrete. Kitchen space has been designed with a concept of functional and neat user interface using back painted glass material and diffused lightings.

16. temple- A Tranquil palace

Location: Songadh

A jain temple is designed with lattice work. It's a part of a world heritage site at Songadh.

17. Public sitting- A modern symposium

A public seating space is designed using traditional elements along with contemporary ones. Ionic columns area used along with minimalistic benches along with an idol at the centre.

18. Apartment: The Haven

Location: Ahmedabad

Area: 1000 sqft

A color scheme used here, give the apartment a unique character. It is designed in a way to create a more welcoming experience. White and browns along with gray give more subtle look to the house.